AWARD WINNING EXCELLENCE

Metis Homes is an experienced and respected new homes builder and for two years running we have impressed the judges of the prestigious WhatHouse? Awards, achieving the ultimate industry prize of Best Small Housebuilder in the UK at 2017's event, following our win of Silver the previous year, underlining our commitment to excellence in all that we do.

The judges highlighted our 100% success in achieving planning on all submitted projects, demonstrating our stakeholder engagement and community collaboration, adding that – ‘Town or country it meets the architectural challenge and adds to the local scene, with sympathetic landscaping another string to its bow’.

In summing up, the judges stated ‘you sense a builder with happy staff and happy customers and a strong culture established within a decade of business. Simple ambitions, but not so easy to realise. A gold standard set.’ This award bears testament to our ambition to place high quality design, specification and build standards, allied to first class customer service, at the forefront of our operations. Choose one of our homes at Wyndham Mews and you too can reap the benefits of our award-winning standards.

MORE THAN JUST A NEW HOME

At Metis Homes we pride ourselves on creating homes that offer more than just 'standard' living. We listen to what our discerning buyers want and with carefully selected specifications our homes include many features and enhancements that other developers charge for as extras, ensuring that your new home is nothing short of superior in terms of quality and practicality.

Our living spaces are designed with generosity in mind, giving you and your family space to grow, combining thoughtful attention to detail with high quality materials to withstand the rigours of life. Kitchens perfectly blend form and function to create a workspace that is the hub of the home, while bathrooms and en suites are elegant havens of luxury in which to wash away the cares of the world.

In short, a Metis home is so much more than just a new house, it's your new home, designed from the ground up to be everything you want it to be.

AN HISTORIC PAST A PROMISING FUTURE

Set against the backdrop of Cowdray Heritage site, Midhurst has become a favoured destination for modern living. With our collection of 2, 3 & 4 bedroom homes, Metis Homes brings you the opportunity to be a part of this enviable community.

What's not to like about life in Midhurst? This attractive, compact town has plenty to offer those seeking a quality of life that exceeds expectations. The town was named one of the best places to live in a Sunday Times survey in 2016. No surprise when you consider the blend of historic buildings, excellent facilities, the stunning surrounding landscape of the South Downs and a comprehensive range of shops, restaurants and amenities.

Wyndham Mews is tucked away in peaceful Lamberts Lane, yet you'll be within a stone's throw of North Street, Midhurst's main shopping street, and just across the road from Cowdray House ruins.

ONE OF THE MOST DESIRABLE DESTINATIONS IN WEST SUSSEX

Midhurst promises an exceptional quality of life in one of the most attractive towns in West Sussex, where upmarket shops, restaurants and delis complement the architectural delights of the townscape.

Midhurst offers something for everybody. There's a fabulous selection of independent retailers selling everything from country clothing and homeware to designer brands and gifts. Add traditional butchers, bakers, hardware store and delis into the mix and it's easy to see the appeal.

There's also a wide choice of eateries, including Pizza Express, American style Stetson, Khan's Brasserie and Caffè Verdi and Deli Verdi, among others.

For a relaxing drink try Faustino's Wine & Tapas Bar, the Bricklayers Arms or the renowned Angel Hotel.

One of the highlights of the Midhurst calendar is the annual Midhurst Music Arts and Drama Festival, bringing local residents together in an entertaining showcase of talent.

If you feel the need to travel further afield, trains from nearby Haslemere will get you to London Waterloo in as little as 52 minutes.

THE SOUTH DOWNS ON YOUR DOORSTEP

Getting into the great outdoors is easy when you live at Wyndham Mews.

Set on the banks of the River Rother in the heart of the South Downs National Park, Midhurst enjoys an unrivalled location. Whether it's walking the dog, hiking for miles, taking to horseback or freewheeling on two wheels, this vast expanse of countryside won't fail to fulfil. The more adventurous may wish to tackle the South Downs Way, running for 100 miles from Winchester to Eastbourne.

For those who want a more relaxed approach, take to the lanes and discover welcoming country pubs serving up home prepared food and enjoy the warmth of a log fire in winter, or a garden with views in the summer.

*Tudor majesty
at Cowdray Ruins*

Just a few hundred yards from Wyndham Mews, Cowdray was partially destroyed by fire in 1793 whilst undergoing repair. This early Tudor house is known to have been visited by both King Henry VIII and Queen Elizabeth I and the building remained relatively untouched until a restoration project was embarked upon by 1st Viscount Cowdray between 1909 and 1914. It's this work that is generally considered to have prevented the building from total collapse and preserved what remains to become the prominent landmark that it is today. cowdray.co.uk

ESCAPES

When it comes to days out, living at Wyndham Mews won't disappoint, with an amazing array of attractions within easy reach.

Celebrity spotting at Cowdray Park Polo

Midhurst is best known for Cowdray Park, the venue for world-class polo and home of the Gold Cup for the British Open Polo Championship since 1956. Cowdray Park attracts people from all walks of life to savour the excitement and pace of this exciting sport. A great day out on your doorstep! cowdraypolo.co.uk

The roar of iconic racing cars at the Goodwood Revival and Festival of Speed

These annual events each pay homage to the history of motorsport with spectacular displays of cars both old and new either roaring up the hill climb course at Goodwood House or navigating their way around the motor circuit. Visitors to The Revival are encouraged to dress in period style to create a unique event that is a delight to be part of. goodwood.com

Experience some of our finest countryside on the South Downs Way

Stretching for 100 miles from Winchester to Eastbourne, the South Downs Way can be traversed on foot, by bike or on horseback. Whether you're inclined to travel its entire length or just a section of it you'll be rewarded with magnificent vistas every step of the way, or stop off and visit Bignor Roman Villa and Amberley Working Museum. southdownsway.co.uk

Immerse yourself in nature at Woolbeding Gardens

Just outside Midhurst you'll find Woolbeding Gardens, a National Trust garden full of vibrant colour and a true inspiration for any amateur gardener. With a series of gardens that include formal Garden Rooms and the wilder Long Walk with its follies and ornamental vegetable garden there's something to appeal to all. Throughout the year various events are held, in addition to gardeners' workshops where you can pick up handy tips to help make your own garden space what you want it to be. nationaltrust.org.uk

Chill out at the Spread Eagle Hotel & Spa

Dating back to 1430, The Spread Eagle is a well regarded Midhurst hotel and spa. Spa membership will give you access to the Scandinavian style pool, jacuzzi and fitness suite. Additionally the spa has six treatment rooms as well as offering yoga and pilates classes. hshotels.co.uk

An outstanding selection of schools

When it comes to education Midhurst is top of the class in both the state and private sectors.

Primary age children are catered for by Midhurst C of E Primary, rated 'good' by Ofsted, while secondary school, Midhurst Rother College, located within a few hundred metres of Lamberts Lane, has been rated 'outstanding'.

For younger children there are a number of nurseries in Midhurst.

In the independent sector, Seaford College at Duncton and The Royal School in Haslemere are favoured local choices.

Chichester Harbour and the south coast

One of the great advantages of life at Wyndham Mews is the proximity of the south coast. Chichester Harbour offers plenty of activities for families, from invigorating waterside walks to powerboating and sailing while the natural, unspoilt beaches of West Wittering and the National Trust's East Head are unrivalled in their beauty.

Many take to the water here to indulge in kitesurfing and sailboarding, but you may prefer just to sit back, observe the activity and soak up the sun. For even more activity, Portsmouth, with its historic dockyards offers a wealth of opportunities for days out, while Gunwharf Quays presents an array of discount designer outlets, restaurants and entertainment.

Petworth House – home to a major collection of artworks

Set within a 700 acre deer park created by Capability Brown in the 1750s, just 6.5 miles from Midhurst, Petworth House is a magnificent 17th century building inspired by the Baroque palaces of Europe. The house is home to a splendid collection of major artworks by Van Dyck, Turner, Reynolds and Gainsborough, while visitors can also experience 'life below stairs' or attend one of the antiques and fine art fairs. nationaltrust.org.uk

COMPLEMENTING THE ENVIRONMENT

Wyndham Mews is set around an attractive landscaped courtyard with parking, overlooked by all of the homes with the exception of Wells Cottages, which is separately accessed from Lamberts Lane.

Designed to reflect the local architectural style, traditional detailing and materials feature throughout, creating a sense of place and ensuring that Wyndham Mews blends easily into its environment.
